

DR. MUHAMMED MAJEED

FOUNDER & OWNER
SAMI-SABINSA GROUP OF COMPANIES

Dr. Majeed born 1948 is an industrial pharmacist by degree, entrepreneur and Chairman of the Sami-Sabinsa Group of Companies, a global leader in standardized herbal extracts as well as a successful direct-selling business based on award winning formulations.

Lives in Bangalore, India

Awarded the Ellis Island Medal of Honor by NECO authorized by the U.S. ; Hall of Legends recipient by New Hope Natural Media

Loves spending time with his kids (3) and grandkids (7)

Long Island University - MS '80
St. John's University - PhD '86

Michael Pistone & John Hoeffner,
"Dr. Majeed has provided a service for an untold number of future scientists and entrepreneurs."
Stepping out of the Brain Drain

He believes that
"No matter what you do, do it with passion."

MAJOR MILESTONES

2004

Creating a sustainable herbal cultivation program throughout India, and helping farmers become more educated. Today, his farming program expands outside India.

100+ distinguished patents achieved. A testament to the culmination of research and development in areas such as treating obesity, skin health, cancer therapy, and much more.

2015

PRESENT

The Dr. Majeed Foundation, supports children from poor families for their education, irrespective of their caste, creed or religion. Funding for schools to have proper infrastructure, books and computers is also supported.

Follow Dr. Majeed at:

